

4th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

Hello New Fourth Graders!

I hope you are excited to begin your adventure in fourth grade. In order to get us started, I would like you to read two books over the summer and do one of the listed responses for each one you choose. First, pick a book from the book list below. Check out the books before you decide! Choose one that is not only interesting to you, but also feels right for your reading level. Then, choose a response from the response list below. You can choose any response you'd like, you just can't do the same one twice! Complete the response to go along with the book that you read. Finally, repeat the process for book number two!

Remember, these responses are meant to be fun and engaging! Make sure to choose the ones that feel that way for you. If you like to write, choose one that involves writing. If you like to create, choose one that involves designing something. Either way, make sure to have fun while working, and most importantly, have fun while reading!

I can't wait to see what you come up with! I will see you in the fall but until then...

Have a great summer!

~ Miss Scholl
